

The Promised Son Through the Blessed One

Genesis 12:1-9

Leaving everything to follow God shows our trust in His faithfulness.

1. God's call to Abram anticipates Jesus' _____.

2. God's Promise to Abram anticipates Jesus' _____.

3. Abram's faith in God anticipates Jesus' _____.

FOR FURTHER THOUGHT:

1. What are things in your own life you had to leave behind to follow God? What might you still need to give up for Him?
2. What other parts of Abram's/Abraham's life anticipate Jesus?
3. Read Genesis 15:1-6 and Genesis 17:1-14. What do these passages add to your understanding of Abraham's story and how God's promises to Abraham anticipate Jesus' coming?
4. What kind of flow do you see in God's blessing to Abram in Genesis 12:2-3? Is there a progression, or are the blessings simply stated at random?
5. Who do you think Abram thought would be the "offspring" who would receive the promised land? Does the passage indicate he had any clue as to the importance of this offspring?
