

A God Defined People

Joshua 20-21

God's people are defined as a people of...

1. _____ (vs. 20:1-9)

2. _____ (vs. 20:1-9)

3. _____ (vs. 21:1-42)

4. _____ (vs. 21:43-45)

FOR FURTHER THOUGHT:

1. Why is it important to remember that Jesus' payment for our sins is both merciful and just?
2. Oftentimes, while reading through passages like this, we tend to tune out or think there isn't much to take away from the passage. What are some fresh takeaways that you have seen in Joshua 20-21 that will help you treasure this passage more in the future?
3. What are some practical things you can put into practice to help you worship God more consistently, thus making worship a defining part of your daily life?
4. What are your thoughts on justice in the Church being aimed at redemption and mercy? Is that confusing? Encouraging? Overwhelming?
5. God's faithfulness is a beautiful theme throughout Scripture. How have you seen God's faithfulness in your life?
6. God provides Spiritual Leaders for His people by way of the Levites and their towns being spread around all of Israel; Jesus is the greatest example of a Spiritual Leader. What are some ways in which Jesus leads that we can look for in a Spiritual Leader? In other words, based on Jesus' example, what should we look for in a Spiritual Leader?
