FOR FURTHER THOUGHT:

1. Read through Joshua 23 and Joshua 1. How do they compare? In what ways do you think Joshua has changed? How has God remained the same?
2. What is the difference between loving God out of joy and loving God out of obligation?
3. What role does remembering play in Joshua's words in chapter 23? What role does remembering play in your own life? What is the difference between remembering what God has done and reminiscing about how things used to be?
4. How does it make you feel to know not one word spoken by God will be left unfulfilled?
5. What are some of the ways that the church can proactively work to avoid neglecting God's instructions?
6. How do you respond to the idea of the fear of God? Does it move you to obedience or does it cause you to be afraid to do anything? Why?
