2. _____ (vs. 14-18)

3. _____ (vs. 19-33)

FOR FURTHER THOUGHT:

1. Read through Joshua 24:1-13. What do you think God is saying about himself?
2. How do the words of Balaam's prophesy in Numbers 23:16-20 bring clarity to your answer? (Also see Joshua 21:45; 23:14).
3. Why do you think Joshua recounted God's grace-filled history before calling the people to renew their commitment to the Lord?
4. In what ways does God continue to display His power toward the church? Does this make you more dependent upon Him?
5. How has God's provision for you been both necessary and abundant?
6. Describe the call that Joshua lays before the people. Does Christ demand such a commitment from His followers?
7. How are we, like the Israelites, unable to worship and serve God?
8. How can we worship and serve God in spite of ourselves?
9. The book begins and ends with the deaths of the faithful. Why might this be significant?
10. How does the book of Joshua challenge your faith? How does it strengthen your faith?
